

GUNDOG BREEDS OF SCOTLAND - 2025

SETTER IRISH

Thank you to GBAS for my judging invitation. I thoroughly enjoyed my day. I want to thank all the exhibitors for giving me such a lovely entry, I was so thrilled. It is an expensive hobby and I appreciated the great entry. A lot of placings were close and it was a shame that the ring was quite small which affected a few dogs, especially the males. My stewards were lovely and kept the ring running smoothly.

MPD (2,1abs) 1 Richardson, Bardonhill To Be Or Not To Be. A promising boy who was very happy and moved really well for one so young. He has a nicely shaped head with a sweet expression and dark eyes. Good forehead which was nicely angulated. I loved his bone and outline and I felt he was just right for his age. BPD. JD (4) 1 Hemmings Orlanset Slave To Love. This boy is built on more moderate lines than 2 and is well balanced. He has a lovely head and expression. Good length of neck with the desired arch. He is clean over the shoulders which were nicely angulated. Good depth all through, firm sloping topline and I loved his width of thigh and tight feet where quite a few failed today. He moved out well, keeping his outline. 2 Fosters Ixia Boys Don't Cry At Shanoah. Oh dear he was very naughty today and he definitely wasn't crying as he was having too much fun! Handsome head and expression. He has an eye-catching outline, everything in the right place. Good layback of shoulders with return and length of upper arm. He is nicely angulated behind with great width of thigh. The few steps that he moved calmly he covered the ground well. 3 Cayton-Lee Dendroch Major Oak YD (5,1) 1 Crocker/Frost Ronaldo Lofty At Riverbrue (imp pol). I was really impressed with this boy. He is going to take his time but I loved his clean racy outline. He has a kind expression, good length of neck flowing into lovely shoulders. His rear quarters are balanced and he is in lovely muscle tone. He came into his own on the move with forward reach and drive. 2 Wheeldons Quensha Fine And Dandy At Colemist. Maturer boy than 1 in lovely coat and condition. His coat is dark and presented well. Balanced head with a pleasing expression. He is clean over the shoulders and a good depth of chest. He has shapely rear quarters which were well muscled and he moved out well. 3 Grahams Gwendariff Not On Your Nelly (ikc) Ir Jnr CH ND (2) 1 Crocker/Frost Ronaldo Lofty At Riverbrue 2nd MacFarlane Harelfeg MacFarlane For Umfrido. He is heavier and stronger in bone than 1. He has a nicely shaped head and kind eyes, good length of neck and firm topline. Pasterns need to strengthen and he was a little proud of his tail today. GD (6) 1 Jacobs/Bernard Forfarian Fancy Footwork (jw) I really liked this quality 2yr old boy. He is in lovely coat and condition. His head is balanced and handsome. His neck is of good length that flowed cleanly into his nicely angulated shoulders. He has a good depth of brisket and spring of ribs. I loved his muscular rear quarters and length and finished to croup. Another with a lovely clean outline, super firm gentle sloping topline. He moved out happily, with drive. 2 Davison Bardonhill Love Me Tender. Another quality boy not as forward as 1. I liked his head and raised brows. His neck flowed cleanly into his shoulders. He has a good depth of chest with good bone and body properties. He moved soundly. 3 Gilray Jonola Singapore Sling. PGD (4) four quality males in this class. 1 Richardsons Bardonhill McIntosh Red At Montgreenan (jw). He has an eye-catching outline. Stronger headed male with a kind expression and raised brows. He is clean over the shoulders with good length of rib and loin. His hindquarters are balanced and he stands on tight feet where quite a few failed today. Well presented in good coat and condition and he moved out well enjoying his day. 2 Lucas Gwendarriff Batchelor Boy. This boy still needs to mature to come together. He has a handsome expression with dark eyes. His head is balanced with a good skull shape and finish to the foreface with low set ears. He has a muscular neck that flowed cleanly in a good layback of shoulder and return of upper arm. Well angulated hindquarters and he moved soundly. 3 Russells Tiroen Tough of Magic By Settesoli. LD (17,3) Wow what a class. I could have done with another set of cards. A few in this class really didn't enjoy the ringsize or surface so unfortunately paid the penalty. 1 Kolbach Kerryfair Zoom In On Pawsword. I have always loved this boy and followed him through his stages whilst maturing. He is starting to come into his own. He has the most balanced outline with no exaggerations. He has a beautiful head with a lovely eye shape and a mischevious expression. His arched neck is of good length and he has a super forehand with plenty of heart room and spring of ribs. For me he has the most balanced outline, everything fits cleanly. He is not a big boy but full of quality. He has shapely hindquarters which are so balanced with a great width of thigh and short hocks. Some dogs are getting far too long in the second thigh and clean hocks are disappearing. He stands on lovely feet. When he is behaving, for me he looks stunning and then he thinks about more interesting things to do and loses his concentration which is frustrating. I considered him for top honors and I hope he gets there. 2 Boyd-McNeil/Edwards Gwendariff Beam Me Up Scotty. A beautiful boy who enjoyed his day. He has a lovely head shape and a handsome expression with dark eyes. His shoulders are well placed with a good return of the upper arm. He has plenty of forechest and he is well ribbed leading to a strong loin and correct croup. He moved really well with good foot fall. He was presented in immaculate coat and condition. 3 Dewar Gwendariff Bobby Dazzler(Ikc) OD (6,1) Quality class 1 Allen/Bott/Morgan Sh Ch Quensha Take A Bow. An impressive boy with such a striking outline. He is not overdone in any way. He has a beautiful head with the desired raised brows and chiselling. His neck is strong and of good length. I just loved his front assembly, such length through his shoulders and upper arms. He has a pronounced sternum and great depth of chest, good ribs and strong loin. He has beautifully shaped hindquarters in great muscle tone and short clean hocks that enabled him to move so soundly with a lashing happy tail. Pleased to award him the ResCC. 2 Beresford Jetsetter Wind Of Dreams (Imp Rus). Another quality male. He is a lovely type and again not overdone in any way. He is so balanced and well presented and in great coat and condition. Very sound front assembly and nice neat feet. His topline gently slopes with a good length and spring of ribs leading to a strong loin of good length. Nicely angulated and balanced hindquarters. His outline really appealed to me and he moved with style.

3 Edwards Sh Ch Copper's Get Off My Cloud By Bonhommie (Imp Swe) VD (5,1) 1 Russells Sh Ch Lynwood Hocus Pocus At Settesoli (jw). I have judged him a couple of times when he was younger. I gave him BIS at a club open show, so I was interested to see how he had matured and at 8 years it was wonderful to judge him again. I just love him. His head is so balanced with plenty of work in it. He has the most kind and gentle face. He is now greying but it only enhanced his expression. Super neck leading into clean well laid shoulders. He is so sound in front with a good sternum and heart room. Ribs are well sprung with the correct length of loin. His hindquarters are strong and well muscled. He is so sound and not exaggerated in any way. Everything fits cleanly together. Congratulations to his owner who presented him in such good condition.
